

Privacy Notice for Job Applicants at Moordown St John's Primary School

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals applying for jobs at our school, in line with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

We, Moordown St John's CE Primary School, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our Data Protection Officer is Kim Bainton (Contact details shown below in Section 9, How to Contact us).

Successful candidates should refer to our privacy notice for the school workforce for information about how their personal data is collected, stored and used.

1.0 The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at our School. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- Copies of right to work documentation
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment records including work history, job titles, training records and professional memberships
- CCTV images captured in school – tours of school / interview candidates

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

2.0 Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to aid the recruitment process by:

- Enabling us to establish relevant experience and qualifications
- Facilitating safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Enabling equalities monitoring
- Ensuring that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for candidates that require them
- Complying with legal and statutory duties.

3.0 Our lawful basis for using this information

We only collect and use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation
- We need to perform an official task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also process your personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (protect their life)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

We may also use sensitive personal data called "special category data" which requires more protection to keep it safe. This is often information you would not want to be widely known and is very personal to you. It includes:- race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation, political opinions, disability (to ensure accessibility and your safety).

We will take extra care of this data. The legal reason for us to collect and use this personal information is:

- to perform our statutory duties and it is required by law
- for reasons of public interest
- to protect an individual's vital interests.

4.0 Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

5.0 How we store this data

Personal information that we collected as part of our recruitment process is stored/retained in accordance with our Records Retention Schedule/Records Management policy. A copy of this is available from the School Office or may be downloaded from the Data Protection/GDPR section of our website

When this information is no longer required, we will securely dispose of/delete your personal information in accordance with the above-mentioned records retention/management policy.

6.0 Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- The Academy Trust – for monitoring of recruitment processes
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as shortlists of candidates for a Headteacher position.
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for (such as HR/recruitment support)
- Professional bodies, advisors and consultants – such as for HR/recruitment support
- Employment and recruitment agencies – such as for the processing of DBS clearances
- NHS Track and Trace Covid 19 – to report on those in close contact with anyone who has tested positive for Covid-19 within the setting.

As part of the statutory school inspection process, we are required to share information with our regulators, OfSTED and SIAMS (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools). Information may also be shared with our auditors. Where possible such data is anonymised before sharing.

Occasionally we may share information with the Health and Safety Executive as part of our legal obligation to report certain accidents/incidents/near misses under RIDDOR (Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations).

Data sharing with NHS Track and Trace – Covid-19

The law on protecting personally identifiable information, known as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), allows Public Health England to use the personal information collected by NHS Test and Trace Service.

Therefore if required to do so by the NHS Track and Trace Services, Moordown St John's Primary School will provide the contact details of all children and adults that have been in close contact with anyone that has tested positive for Covid-19 within the setting.

This is in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR 'processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest'.

6.1 Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law.

7.0 Your rights: requesting access to personal data (Subject Access Request)

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

7.1 Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

8.0 Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with our Data Protection Lead in the first instance; contact details are shown in Point 9 below.

To make a complaint, please contact our Data Protection Officer, contact details are shown in Point 9 below.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint direct to the Information Commissioner's Office, see Point 10.
